Focus of Retreat:

This year's retreat will explore how the breath of the Spirit blows upon our lives as individuals and ministers of music and how, together, we can listen in order to integrate our gifts and breathe as the one Body of Christ.

Familiar and new songs spanning the history of sacred music — chants and hymns, together with texts and music from today's composers, like John Angotti — will help us to explore what it means to breathe as the Body of Christ in our world today.
