

DIOCESE OF HAMILTON

BISHOP FARRELL LIBRARY & ARCHIVES

REQUEST TO PUBLISH

You may request permission to publish, broadcast, or exhibit reproductions of materials from The Bishop Farrell Library & Archives.

Please read the following regulations, complete the form, and list all items requested for publication.

1. Permission is for one-time use only, as described on this form, with no other rights. Any subsequent use requires further permission and must be applied for by completing an additional form.
2. Reproductions may not be transferred to another individual or organization, sold, or further reproduced.
3. Reproductions made by users will not be represented as official versions of the documents.
4. The Diocese of Hamilton cannot grant permission to publish materials where copyright is held by another party. Permission to publish can only be granted by the copyright holder. It is the user's responsibility to obtain any necessary permissions.
5. Permission to publish is not required for materials in the public domain (material for which the statutory term of copyright has expired or where copyright protection does not apply).
6. Bishop Farrell Library & Archives staff will advise users on the copyright status of any items requested for publication.
7. All reproductions must be credited to The Bishop Farrell Library & Archives, Diocese of Hamilton as the location of the originals. This includes items in the public domain.
8. Users accept full responsibility for complying with the Canadian Copyright Act and with any other restrictions that may apply to the collection. The Bishop Farrell Library & Archives assumes no responsibility for unauthorized use of collection material by users.
