

ST. JOHN PAUL II STUDENT CENTRE, WATERLOO

 @jp2sc
 jp2studentcentre

Our purpose is to provide a Catholic "home away from home". Students join us here for support, faith formation, prayer, worship and fellowship with other university and college students in Waterloo. Our Student Centre is in the old rectory of St. Michael's parish, so it looks like, feels like, and is a family home.

Our patron, St. John Paul II, recognized the importance of forming young Catholics in their relationship with our Lord. Carrying on his great tradition, we strive to support and nourish the faith of the emerging generation of Christian leaders. We heed the voice of the Holy Spirit that came through our patron's call to 'be not afraid!' (Lk 5:10) and to 'open wide the door for Christ', by living and proclaiming the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ!

 McMaster Catholic Chaplaincy (Discord)

It can be hard to stay grounded in Christ as a busy university student. But you don't have to journey alone. Our chaplaincy exists to help students succeed as Catholics in university with the support and love of other students and our chaplaincy team. We run events throughout the school year, both social and spiritual, to grow as friends and members of the Church. We also seek to witness the love of Christ to fellow McMaster students and the wider community.

So, know you are welcome here, whether you are a new student searching for a spiritual home, or a new Catholic looking for fellow believers, or someone struggling with doubts, or just curious about Catholicism. No matter who you are, we would love to receive you into this loving community!

NEWMAN CENTRE, GUELPH

 @uoguelphcatholic
@newmancentreguelph

The Newman Centre Guelph is a spiritual home for Catholic students at the University of Guelph. When you walk into the Newman Centre, you are not just walking into any other building, you enter a community... a family. You are being invited to a seat at the table. Through the leadership of the University Catholic Community student club, this family is one where faith and fellowship flourish.

Events like small group faith studies, community dinners, social game nights, men's and women's nights, family mass, and on-campus outreach invite students to pray, serve, and evangelize. The friendships you build here are incomparable. The questions answered here inspire you to search deeper. The faith formed here truly equips you with the armour of God. All are welcome at the Newman Centre, where "heart speaks to heart" (St. John Henry Newman).
